

The background of the entire image is a soft, light pink gradient. On the left side, there is a large, stylized profile of a woman's face, facing right. The face is composed of several overlapping, semi-transparent layers in shades of pink and white, creating a layered, paper-cut effect. The hair is represented by a series of overlapping floral and leaf shapes in various colors including purple, pink, yellow, and green. The overall aesthetic is soft, romantic, and artistic.
