A woman is standing in a grand, ornate archway, wearing a vibrant pink Banarasi silk saree with a wide, shimmering gold border and a matching gold belt. The saree features intricate gold patterns, including diamond shapes and floral motifs. She is also wearing a pink blouse with gold detailing on the sleeves and a gold belt. Her hair is styled in a bun with a pink and white floral headband. The background is a highly decorated archway with intricate carvings and colorful patterns. The floor is made of large, light-colored stone tiles. The overall lighting is warm and golden, highlighting the textures of the silk and the architectural details.
