A woman with long dark hair is standing outdoors, wearing a teal-colored kurta and matching trousers. The kurta features gold-colored embroidery, including a wide border along the V-neckline and scattered motifs across the body. A matching teal dupatta with gold patterns is draped over her shoulders. She is also wearing large, ornate gold earrings and clear high-heeled sandals. The background consists of various green plants in pots and a building with a red lattice window. The overall scene is brightly lit, suggesting daytime.
