

A woman with long, wavy brown hair is the central figure. She is wearing a dark green, short-sleeved kurta with a round neckline. The kurta is decorated with small, light-colored floral embroidery scattered across the bodice and along the neckline and armholes. A wide, vertical band of more intricate embroidery runs down the center of the chest. She is also wearing a shawl with a large, light-colored floral pattern over her shoulders. Her accessories include a multi-strand pearl and gold necklace, large gold earrings, a gold hair clip, and a gold bangle. The background is a soft, textured grey wall with some wooden vases visible on the left.
