

Saroj

MAN MARYADA SILK SAROSKI
VOL-04

The image features two women dressed in traditional Indian attire. The woman on the left is wearing a vibrant green silk sari with intricate gold and green patterns. She has a bindi on her forehead and is adorned with multiple red and gold bangles. Her hands are decorated with red henna. The woman on the right is wearing a pink and red silk sari with gold patterns. She also has a bindi and is wearing green and gold bangles. Her hands are also decorated with red henna. The background is a warm, brownish-orange color with hanging garlands of orange flowers. The word 'Saroj' is written in a stylized, cursive font in the top right corner.
